

HIGGS & JOHNSON

Counsel & Attorneys-at-Law

NEWEST ASSOCIATE ADMITTED TO CAYMAN BAR

On 26 February 2010 Thomas Mylott was admitted to practise as an attorney-at-law in the Cayman Islands by the Honourable Mr. Justice Quin QC on the application of Higgs & Johnson, Attorneys-at-Law.

Mr. Mylott studied law at Cambridge University and qualified as a Solicitor of the Supreme Court of England and Wales in 2002. He also completed the diploma program of the Society for Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP).

Mr. Mylott specialises in trusts, tax planning and wills. He has extensive legal experience in drafting and administering life interests, discretionary and protective trusts and personal injury and pilot trusts for pension benefits and insurance policies. He has worked with advisors and trustees on establishing investment portfolios, ensuring correct levels of risk and close monitoring of the same. Mr. Mylott has also acted in multiple aspects of wealth management and advised trustees on their obligations, duties, powers and possible trust distributions.

The admission application in the Grand Court was attended by Dr. Earl Cash who is a Partner of the firm in Nassau, Bahamas. Dr. Cash commented: "On behalf of the Private Client & Wealth Management at Higgs & Johnson, I welcome Tom Mylott to our team. He will be a most competent addition, given his experience in the field of trusts, and we are pleased to have his able assistance as the firm continues to provide first-rate service to our clients."

The application was made by the firm's Country Managing Partner, Mr. Philip Boni, who welcomed Mr. Mylott to the firm and expressed his pleasure at this opportunity to expand the services being offered by the Cayman office.
